Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Mellenthin

Welcome to the Baltic Sea! Your cycling holiday on Usedom, Germany's second biggest island, starts in Mellenthin. Check into your hotel and take a first tour through the town or go for a swim - there are many opportunities, e.g. the backwaters, Schmollensee lake, Gothensee lake or the Baltic itself.

Day 2: Excursion to Swinemünde, approx. 60 km

After breakfast, you first set off for Swinemünde. On the way you pass the well-known resorts of Heringsdorf and Bansin. Go and feel the sea breeze in your hair on one of the piers here. The port town of Swinemünde is distributed across a group of islands in the north west of Poland. In the east, the town centre is curbed by the river Swine. The islands of Usedom and Wollin are separated from each other by an arm of the Baltic Sea. Explore the town centre with its historic town hall, Christuskirche and the tower of the Luther Church. Today, the church tower is a cafe and viewing point. Visit the spa quarter of the town. The promenade awaits your visits with its many restaurants, bars and ships.

Day 3: Mellenthin – Zinnowitz – Wolgast, approx. 40 km

On your cycling holiday on Usedom, you visit the resort of Zinnowitz. Enjoy the unspoiled tranquility of the island countryside. You can watch the waves rushing onto the beach and see the trees in the coastal forests swaying in the wind. On your bike it's now time to go on to Wolgast, your second place to stay on this holiday. This diverse town owes its special thanks to its combination of tradition and modernity. In the historic quarter, you'll be struck by the lovely facades on the historic town houses. Special buildings in the town are St. Peter's Church, the baroque town hall and Gertrudenkappelle Wander around the harbour and be charmed by the maritime flair.

Day 4: Excursion to Peenemünde, approx. 35 km

After your first night in Wolgast, on Usedom, you cycle to Peenemünde, the northernmost community on the island. The place is known for rocket development in the former military testing grounds at Peenemünde. In Peenemünde's history and technology museum you can find out all about the events back then and the history of the town. The maritime museum in Peenemünde, the submarine U-461, is at the pier of the former naval base and can be visited every day. Dive right in, in a very true sense of the word - into this naval world. Next, the ferry takes you to the mainland, to Freest and you cycle back to Wolgast.

Day 5: Wolgast – Lissan – Mellenthin, approx. 55 km

Your cycling holiday on Usedom takes you to Lissan, one of Germany's smallest towns. Despite its size, it has a lot to offer. St. Johannis Church, the remains of the Medieval town fortifications, the Lissan mill, and the restored timber-framed houses all adorn the town. The forests nearby and the town's location on the waterside give it its special flair. You cycle through Buggenhagen, where you can visit the manor house. Since 2013 it has accommodated the Till-Richter Museum. Now it's on, back to Meelenthin.

Day 6: Excursion to Lieper Winkel, approx. 35 km

A magnificent avenue of chestnut trees leads you along challenging cycle paths to the Lieper Winkel peninsula. It is located between the Achterwasser and Peenestrom rivers. The most famous village on the peninsula is Rankwitz. Thatched half-timbered houses and fishermen's cottages give the village that certain something. In the tranquillity of the seemingly endless forests and fields of the peninsula, you cycle past the 700-year-old Suckow oak tree. It is over 20 metres tall, its crown is 30 metres wide and its trunk is 6.50 metres long.

Day 7: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
